Sir,

I have in my hands the above urgent letters in order to reply the same so as to reach you by 15-11-2023. Unfortunately and shockingly, the GHMC and CEO at Hyderabad have irregularly dealt with this important and urgent communications knowingly or otherwise in a manner detrimental to the cause with which the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India is attaching the deepest concern to the subject which is of national importance.

Your letter dated 3-11-2023 reaches CEO, Hyderabad on 04-11-2023 which is addressed to us on date 07-11-2023 but reaches to us on 14-11-2023 late in the evening after closing hours through 3 personal messengers. We have received them with a protest (for the delay only) making a note as follows in the acknowledgement,

“Received copy very late on 14-11-2023 at 6 30 PM. How is it possible to send reply to ECI by tomorrow”

Reasons for the delay is to be enquired into by your office under information to the Hon’ble Supreme Court of India

However, we are sending our reply today in the early opening hours through speed post for your records and further process

In reply to the Hon’ble Supreme Court of India orders/directions dated 02-11-2023, it is humbly submitted that we have to submit that our party has not received any Electoral Bond(s) till 30-09-2023 and as such the same may kindly be treated as nil

Yours faithfully,

B RAM MOHAN REDDY
