Political parties shall not be required to furnish the name and address of the donor who contribute by way of electoral bond. It is clear from section 13A of the Income Tax Act, 1961. The relevant portion of special provision relating to the contribution received by the political parties through electoral bonds is reproduced hereunder for your kind reference.

Section 13A of the Income Tax Act, 1961

Provided that-

(b) in respect of each such voluntary contribution other than contribution by way of electoral bond in excess of twenty thousand supees, such political party keeps and maintains a record of such contribution and the name and address of the person who has made such contribution,

(d) no donation exceeding two thousand rupees is received by such political party otherwise than by an account payee cheque drawn on a bank or an account payee bank draft or use of electionic clearing system through a bank account or through such other electronic mode as may be prescribed or through electoral bond

Explanation —For the purposes of this proviso, "electoral bond" means a bond referred to in the Explanation to sub-section (3) of section 31 of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (2 of 1934)

Provided further that if the treasurer of such political party or any other person authorized by that political party in this behalf fails to submit a report under sub-section (3) of section 29C of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (43 of 1951) for a financial year, no exemption under this section shall be available for that political party for such financial year

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

(Afaque Ahmed Khan)
